Around The Glades

(By Paul Rardin)

There are three state road jobs held up by red tape either in the Fort Lauderdale office or in Tallahassee. Contracts have been let for construction of Larrimore Road in Pahokee, Curlee Road across the muck to Glades Sugar House and Ice Plant (Airport) Road in Belle Glade. Come January first I'm going to have a friend in the Governor's chair and then I'm going to find out what is holding up work on these three important Glades highways. Excuses had better be pretty good after the new Governor steps into office. He is my friend.

Through the years this newspaper has refrained from using the shortened word for Christmas—always spelling it out CHRISTMAS. I think it even looks better than the abbreviation to say nothing of the misuse of the idea in the abbreviation. Let's spell it out from now on.

Next Monday at the County Commission meeting I'm going to receive a pin denoting 22 years of service to Palm Beach county—Two years as State Representative and 20 years as County Commissioner. Tangible value of the pin may be but little. However, I'll cherish and keep it among my souvenirs. Intangible value of the little souvenir—whether it will be on my coat lapel or in a bureau drawer—will be incalculable.

Driving on Avenue A in Belle Glade is a joy these days. The city has recently had the street retreaded with plant mix and it is as smooth as a table top. It's the street that goes by W. T. Grant's and Grant Avenir's.

Top prize in the Everglades for beautiful Christmas trees will necessarily have to go to Bank of Pahokee. Again this year the tree in Palm Beach county's oldest bank takes all prizes. For its shape, for an outstanding job of decorating and genuine all 'round attractiveness it can't be beat. Take a look the next time you drop by that popular financial institution.

FRIENDS! Aren't friends great? I've known for so these many years that few things compare to good friends. But, Sunday was a new high in friendship for me. The three functions promoted and consummated by friends and neighbors to mark my 20 years of service as a county commissioner were almost overwhelming. I was agreeably surprised on Monday, December 7 when the Board of County Commissioners unanimously voted to make Sunday, December 13, "Paul Rardin Appreciation Day In Palm Beach County." It's nice to have such splendid gestures of friendship while I am up and around and able to enjoy them.

Rotary President Mike Sanders in Pahokee announced yesterday that no meeting of the club will be held on Thursday, December 24. He said officials of the club thought that members might be in the Christmas shopping mood and would want to spend the day preparing for Christmas.

Appreciation Day, Testimony Dinner For Paul Rardin

A Canal Point community-wide testimonial dinner was held at the Community Park in Canal Point Sunday marking 20 years that County Commissioner Paul Rardin has been in public service. The Community Building was full to overflowing as sponsoring organizations, Canal Point Methodist church, Canal Point Baptist church, First Baptist church, PTA, Canal Point Garden Club and the Canal Point Lions club and their friends gathered for a covered dish dinner and a fitting program.

The planning committee from the various groups was as follows: J. G. Weeks, chairman, Roswell Harrington, Stanley Hooks, Grace Maxson, Bonnie Miller, Bernice Sheppard, Edythe Smith, Lawrence Stewart, Ruby Tucker and W. W. White.

Before the dinner was served Harlan Sears, pinch hitting for President J. G. Ford of the Lions club, made a few introductory remarks. The invocation was given by the pastor of the Canal Point Methodist church, Rev. James Baugher. The pledge to the flag was led by W. W. White and Miss Sharon Johnson played "America" at the piano.

Following the dinner and during the program Rev. Lawrence Stewart acted as master of ceremonies. The welcome address was given by Stanley Hooks. Mrs. Earl Maxson presented the Rardins with a handsomely bound book of testimonial letters from many state, county and national officials with whom Commissioner Rardin has worked during the past 20 years. Rev. Baugher rendered a solo which won acclaim from the audience.

A beautiful plaque, fittingly engraved, and provided by the community groups, was presented to Mr. Rardin in a few well chosen remarks by Roswell Harrington. Guest speaker for the day was veteran County Attorney Harry A. Johnston who has been in that position for nearly 29 years. Mr. and Mrs. Rardin were presented to the group by Rev. Stewart.

A skit of a few minutes duration, containing pathos and comedy, and titled "Paul Rardin. This Is Your Life" was the highlight of the program. It was a historical sketch of Mr. Rardin's life from childhood until this present day. Outstanding in the skit was the portrayal of Mrs. Rardin at the age of 13 before she became Mrs. Rardin. This portrayal was excellently done by Mrs. Harry Elarbee.

Morrow Speaker At Dedication Of Paul Rardin Park

Circuit Judge Russell O. Morrow of West Palm Beach was featured speaker at the dedication of "Paul Rardin Park" Sunday on 34th between Pahokee and Belle Glade. Nearly 300 Glades friends and neighbors of veteran County Commissioner and Mrs. Paul Rardin gathered on the bright sunny afternoon for the short and dignified ceremony, marking the park in accordance with a resolution passed unanimously recently by the Board of County Commissioners of Palm Beach county officially describing and naming the new beauty spot "Paul Rardin Park."

The welcome address was given by Board Chairman Bandlow and Commissioner George Warren read the special resolution passed by the board which named the park. Commissioner Lake Lytal and Commissioner E. F. Van Kessel, other members of the board, were present for the ceremony.

A handsome bronze plaque, properly inscribed with the name of the park, names of the county commissioners, the date and a fitting motto: "The highest of distinctions is service to others," was unveiled by Miss Terri Thomas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Thomas, Jr., and Master Kirk Elarbee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brooks Elarbee of Pahokee. The unveiling was followed by Judge Morrow's address.

Following the featured address Commissioner Rardin introduced the distinguished guests present for the happy occasion. The guest list was long and included all county department heads and many folks who work in the various departments of county government in the court house in West Palm Beach.

The invocation for the afternoon was given by Rev. Lawrence Stewart, pastor of the Canal Point Baptist church and the benediction was given by Rev. Jay Jameson, pastor of the Lake Harbor Methodist church.

Following the benediction the group continued on to the Glades Office Building where "Open House" and a reception were held.

Open House Is Well Attended Sunday Glades Office Bld.

Following dedication of "Paul Rardin Park" Sunday afternoon the group of friends, neighbors, county officials and county employees went to the Glades Office Building where Mrs. Mae C. Pope and other employees in that county building had prepared an "Open House" and reception. Much to the surprise and delight of Commissioner and Mrs. Rardin, the entire group that attended the dedication, continued on to the Office Building for the third of three ceremonies during the day to mark Mr. Rardin's 20 years as county commissioner.

The Office Building, erected in 1958, was as spic and span for the "Open House" as the day it was first opened for business. Visitors marveled at the splendid manner in which the building has been kept through these six years under the direction of Mrs. Mae C. Pope, as office manager. The occasion for the "Open House" was the completion of the second story of the building which was necessitated by the creation of the Magistrate Court by the 1963 session of the state legislature.

The new court is presided over by Hon. James L. Tyson, Jr., Magistrate and is housed in a handsome new court room on the second floor. There are other offices on the second floor, not heretofore viewed by the public. They are the offices of the county commissioner, small claims court and the county solicitor.

The building was handsomely decorated throughout for the day by many beautiful bouquets which had been sent by the architect, contractors and well wishers. The large crowd, both at the dedication and at the building, was perfectly handled by the sheriff's department and not a fender was scratched under the direction of these fine young men who have had much experience handling traffic.

The reception was the third function for the day to mark Commissioner Rardin's 20 years in office. Delectable delicacies and punch were served by Mrs. Pope and the other fine ladies who work in the Office Building. To say that the affair was a decided success is stating it mildly.

DEEP APPRECIATION

There aren't enough adjectives in the English language to express the deep appreciation felt by us for the splendid manifestations of friendship and neighborliness expressed Sunday on "Paul Rardin Appreciation Day." Beginning with the Testimonial Dinner at the Community Park in Canal Point, continuing thru the Dedication of Paul Rardin Park and then on to the Glades Office Building where "Open House" and a reception were held, honoring 20 years of service as County Commissioner, it was a perfect day from beginning to end. For each and every act of kindness and the thoughtfulness of those who originated the three functions, we are deeply grateful and shall always remember this great day.

Paul and Kathryn Rardin.

Fred Blakey of Tallahassee is expected this week-end to spend the Christmas holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arch Blakey.

Miss Parson Weds Rupert Mock, Jr.

The Community Methodist Church in Belle Glade was the scene Saturday, Dec. 12, at 4 p. m. of a double-ring, candlelight ceremony uniting in marriage Miss Paulalee Parson of Belle Glade and Rupert Mock, Jr., of Pahokee.

The couple repeated their vows after Rev. W. R. Boland, pastor, as they stood before an altar banked with greenery, decorated with baskets of tube roses, white stock and gladioli interspersed with holly, and lighted with cathedral tapers in two tree-branched candelabra. The seating section for relatives was marked with smilax, holly and tall line candelabra.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Parson of Belle Glade, is a graduate of Belle Glade High School and attended Palm Beach Junior College and Troy State College in Alabama. Formerly associated as customer service representative for the West Palm Beach office of the National Cash Register Company of Dayton, Ohio, she is being transferred by the company to the same position in its Jacksonville office.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Mock of Pahokee. A graduate of Pahokee High School, he received a BS Degree in advertising design from Florida State University in 1962 and did postgraduate work at the University of Arizona. He is a member of Beta Eta Chapter of Pi Kappa Phi Fraternity and served briefly in 1962 as field secretary for the national Pi Kappa Phi office. He is now associated with the Atlantic National Bank in Jacksonville.

Mrs. Harold K. Parson, aunt of the bride, sang "Song of Ruth" and the 23rd Psalm, followed by the prayer song, "O, Father, Son and Holy Ghost," after the couple had completed their vows. She was accompanied by Miss Karen Vadasz, organist, who played also the traditional nuptial music.

Miss Jo Margaret Parson, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Her gown of magenta velvet was fashioned with corded waistline, scoop neckline and a slightly gathered full skirt. Her line bouquet was made up of Colorado white pine interspersed with holly and white carnations.

Bridesmaids were Miss Patricia Marker, cousin of the bride; Mrs. David W. Ramey and Miss Marilyn Mock, sisters of the bridegroom, and Miss Cindy Friend. Their gowns and bouquets were identical to that of the maid of honor.

Kelly Cowart, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Cowart, was flower girl. Jon Mock, small brother of the bridegroom, unrolled the traditional white-aisle cloth in advance of the bridal couple as they marched to the altar.

The bride was escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father. Her full length sheath gown of Empire antique satin brocade featured small knife pleats, on either side, tied with ivory knots of the same material, and a divided surplice with court train. The shoulder-length veil of French illusion was attached to a pillbox hat. Her cascade bouquet of white swan orchids and lilies of the valley was tied with pearl roping and her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls belonging to the bridegroom's mother.

Rupert Mock, Sr., served as his son's best man. Ushers were Walter Rothenbach, a fraternity brother of the bridegroom; David W. Ramey, his brother-in-law; Billy Rogers, a cousin, and Kenneth McIntosh.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Parson wore a late blue sheath with lace overblouse, styled with three-quarter sleeves and crepe skirt. Mrs. Mock, mother of the bridegroom, wore an aquamarine sheath fashioned similarly to that of Mrs. Parson. Both mothers had white cattaleya orchid corsages.

The reception following the ceremony was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Garrie Curlee. At the center of the bride's table was an epergne arrangement of tube roses, white stock and holly. The two punch bowls were entwined with smilax.

Mrs. Michael Wilson was at the

How to speak out for freedom today

Free men have never gone in much for silence. Even before the first thirteen States became United States, men were speaking for freedom loud and clear.

Today Americans speak out for freedom many ways—in Congress, in local government, in neighborhood activities. Some speak out for freedom in other languages, in other lands. And millions of Americans speak out for freedom every time they buy U.S. Savings Bonds.

Every Savings Bond you buy is an investment in freedom. While you're saving money for your own family's future, you're helping Uncle Sam tend to the business of keeping men free today.

Perhaps you don't speak out for freedom in the same tone of voice when you buy a Bond as Patrick Henry did in his famous speech. But you speak every bit as surely. And every bit as proudly.

Why not speak out for freedom now? Buy Bonds at the bank or on the Payroll Savings Plan where you work.

Keep freedom in your future with

Salvation Army Is Big Help In Glades

Many worthwhile services are being carried on by the Salvation Army throughout the year, in the Glades area. Last Sunday afternoon a group of musicians, headed by Major Otis Street, conducted a service at the Belle Glade Correctional Institution. Gift packages were left for each inmate.

Last year 2,190 people were benefited in this area by the Salvation Army services.

Service was rendered to thirty girls in Palm Beach County so far this year, receiving counsel and aid, in addition to others who were referred directly to homes in Jacksonville and Tampa, by County and State Welfare Agencies. These girls come to us bewildered, fearful not knowing what to do; here at the Salvation Army they find a haven of refuge.

Transient services provided in West Palm Beach and throughout the state service migrant persons moving into and out of the Glades. In addition to the many services, the Salvation Army this year has undertaken the operation of the Wee Care Day Center for Migrant children in Belle Glade, which cares for 100 children each day.

Witnesses Home From Kissimmee

Belle Glade Jehovah's Witness delegates are back home after attending a three-day religious assembly in Kissimmee. The assembly was sponsored by the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society and was under the direction of Mr. David Bowman, Witness Supervisor of Florida Circuit No. 8, and Joseph Sala, Witness Supervisor and traveling minister working out of Witness International Headquarters in Brooklyn, New York. Delegates from 19 Central Florida congregations, comprising Circuit No. 8, attended and took part in the program activities.

Miss P. Crum, local presiding Witness minister said that congregations in the Circuit provided program speakers and volunteers to operate some 18 volunteer service departments to care for the needs of the delegates.

"The Witnesses are well known all over the world for their orderly religious gatherings and this of course, takes planning and training such as we receive at the Circuit gatherings," said Mr. Crum. He further clarified this remark by explaining, "The smallest group gatherings, other than the local congregations and Bible study groups, are the Circuit Assemblies and then in turn, the District Assemblies, and then the National and International Assemblies."

New $3\frac{3}{4}\%$ interest on U.S. Savings Bonds

The Treasury explains why the new ones you buy and the ones you own now are better than ever

Q: How does the new  $3\frac{3}{4}\%$  interest rate benefit me?

A: With Series E Bonds, the rate turns $18.75 into $25.00 fourteen months faster than the old rate. Your savings increase faster, because your Bonds mature in just 7 years, 9 months.

With Series H Bonds, the 10-year maturity period stays the same but more interest is paid you each six months. With both E and H Bonds the new rate works out to  $2\frac{1}{4}\%$  for the first year and a half; then a guaranteed  $4\%$  each year to maturity.

Q: When did the new rate become effective?

A: June 1, 1959.

Q: Does the new rate change the Bonds I bought before June 1, 1959?

A: All older E and H Bonds pay more now—an extra  $\frac{1}{4}\%$  from now on, when held to maturity. The increase takes effect in the first full interest period after June 1.

Q: Will the Bonds I own automatically earn their new rate?

A: Yes. You don't need to do a thing—just hold on to your Bonds.

Q: When my E Bonds mature, will they keep on earning interest?

A: Yes. An automatic 10-year extension privilege went into effect along with the new interest rate. This means your E Bonds will automatically keep earning interest after maturity.

Q: With the new interest rate, should I cash in my old Bonds and buy new ones?

A: No. The automatic  $\frac{1}{4}\%$  increase makes it unnecessary—and in almost every case it is to your advantage to retain your present Bonds.

Q: How are series H Bonds different from series E Bonds?

A: The chief difference is this: You buy H Bonds at full face value and the interest is paid by Treasury check every six months for the life of the Bond. You buy E Bonds at 75% of face value and the interest accumulates to maturity. H Bonds provide income for living expenses, while E Bonds build a nest egg for the future. That's why many retired people hold H Bonds and families saving for, say, a child's education, buy E Bonds.

Q: In what denominations can I buy series E and series H Bonds?

A: E Bonds: $25 (cost $18.75), $50 (cost $37.50), $100 (cost $75.00), $200 (cost $150.00), $500 (cost $375.00), $1,000 (cost $750.00), $10,000 (cost $7,500.00).

H Bonds: $500, $1,000, $5,000 and $10,000. They are priced at face value.

Q: How safe are U.S. Savings Bonds?

A: Savings Bonds are an absolutely riskless way to save. The United States Government guarantees the cash value of your Bonds will not drop, that it can only grow.

Q: What if my Bonds should be lost, stolen or destroyed?

A: You can't lose. Every Bond purchased is recorded by the Treasury. If anything happens to your Bonds they are replaced—free!

Q: Where can I buy Bonds?

A: Buy E Bonds at any bank—it takes only a few minutes. Buy them automatically through the Payroll Savings Plan where you work. This Plan means you can have any amount you name automatically deducted every payday. The Bonds you buy by installments are delivered to you automatically, too. Your bank will take your order for H Bonds.

Q: How do I help strengthen America's peace power when I buy U.S. Savings Bonds?

A: Peace costs money—money for military strength and for defense. And money saved by individuals helps keep our economy sound.
